

30th Anniversary Logo Branding

30th Anniversary Logo: “Contemporary Block”

30 YEARS
OF IMPACT

Evergreen Color Options

1.

Primary Color (Standard)

Default usage for all communications.

Use for digital, print, web, presentations, and everyday brand applications.

This is the primary and preferred expression of the 30th Anniversary mark and should be used whenever color production is available.

2.

Gold Glitter (Celebratory)

Reserved for milestone and leadership moments.

Use for LDR, anniversaries, galas, awards, and special events.

This treatment signals celebration and recognition and should be used sparingly for high-impact or ceremonial applications only.

3.

Textured / Specialty Color

Use selectively for merchandise or premium materials.

Not for standard marketing or communications.

This option supports special or tactile applications and should not replace the primary color logo in everyday use.

Black & White Usage Guidelines

Use only when color reproduction is not possible.

Black and white should not be used when full color is available. Color remains the preferred expression of the brand.

Appropriate use cases include:

- Single-color printing.
- Photocopies.
- Budget or production-limited materials.
- Engraving, embroidery, or embossing.
- Accessibility or contrast requirements.

Usage Guidelines

These rules ensure clarity, consistency, and proper brand hierarchy across all applications.

Brand Hierarchy (Required)

- The Uncommon Schools logo must always remain the primary brand.
- The 30th Anniversary mark is secondary and must never visually overpower the Uncommon Schools logo.
- The anniversary mark is intended to support the brand, not replace it.

Required Logo Pairing

- The 30th Anniversary mark may never be used on its own.
- It must always appear alongside the Uncommon Schools logo, using an approved lockup.
- Standalone use of “30,” “30 Years,” or “Years of Impact” without the Uncommon Schools logo is not permitted.

Typography and Text Usage

- The anniversary logo is not typography.
- Do not use the logo inline within sentences, headlines, or body copy.
- Do not recreate the mark using text or attempt to typeset “30 Years of Impact” as copy.

Approved Lockups Only

- Use only the approved horizontal and vertical lockups shown in this document.
- Do not rearrange elements, alter hierarchy, or create new configurations.
- Do not mix elements from different lockups.

Color and Treatment

- Use only the approved horizontal and vertical lockups shown in this document.
- Do not rearrange elements, alter hierarchy, or create new configurations.
- Do not mix elements from different lockups.

Prohibited Uses

Do not:

- Use the anniversary mark in isolation.
- Alter colors, proportions, or layout.
- Remove the Uncommon Schools logo from any application.
- Break apart elements of the mark.
- Use the logo as decorative artwork or background pattern.
- Create new anniversary logo variations.
